

Vancouver General Hospital CTU vs Subspecialty Admission Guidelines

Specialty	Always Admits	During Surge Conditions*
CTU	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Complex multimorbid patients -Eating disorders (with the SPH eating disorder clinic following) -HIV (with the HIV service following)
GI	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -IBD flares -New TPN starts -Stable liver transplant workup 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Stable GI bleeds -Pancreatitis -Stable cholangitis
Resp	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Pneumothorax -Massive hemoptysis -Asthma exacerbation -Advanced ILD -Pulmonary hypertension -Lung transplant patients -Home ventilator patients
Renal Transplant	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Pts <3 months post transplant
BMT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Active leukemia -Stem cell transplant patients

*If the Mocha CTU team is active, we are under surge conditions.